Sir:

On March 16, 2009, Applicant's representative Douglas Pearson conducted a telephonic interview with Examiner Philip C. Lee to discuss the above-identified application. Specifically, Applicant's representative spoke with Examiner Lee to gain clarification regarding the rejection under Section 112. The substance of the interview was described in Applicant's Amendment filed March 25, 2009. In particular, the Examiner indicated during the interview his recollection that he did not see where the specification explicitly disclosed tying the limitation "without any user request for said data content" to the limitation "said scheduler determining said broadcast times and schedule." The Examiner also indicated his recollection that he did not see explicit disclosure in the specification for the limitation "without any user request for said data content." The Examiner's comments given during the interview provided the needed clarification to assist applicants in preparing their Amendment filed March 25, 2009.
